

The Fund Coach and Horizons Stewardship Announce Strategic Partnership to Support Church and Faith-Based Nonprofits

Press Release and FAQs

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Fund Coach, an organization focused on helping church and faith-based nonprofit leaders secure major and mega-gifts, and Horizons Stewardship, a leading provider of integrated funding solutions, are pleased to announce their partnership to address strategic challenges leaders of church and faith-based nonprofits face.

The collaboration between The Fund Coach and Horizons Stewardship comes at a crucial time when church and faith-based nonprofit leaders are experiencing complex challenges, especially major gift development and funding impact. Through this partnership, both organizations will combine their expertise and resources to provide comprehensive solutions that empower leaders to navigate and overcome these obstacles effectively.

The Fund Coach, founded by Mark Duncan, has empowered leaders and organizations with the necessary skills and knowledge to navigate the complexities of major gift fundraising for decades. His extensive experience and his deep understanding of the unique challenges church and faith-based nonprofit leaders face make him an ideal partner for Horizons Stewardship.

Horizons Stewardship is well-known for its expertise in providing integrated funding solutions for churches and faith-based nonprofits. In fact, they've helped thousands of clients raise more than $10 Billion for ministry impact. With three decades of experience and a proven track record of success in guiding organizations to achieve financial sustainability and develop cultures of generosity, Horizons Stewardship brings valuable insights and resources to the partnership.

Together, The Fund Coach and Horizons Stewardship can support churches and faith-based nonprofits by addressing the critical need of funding ministry through major and mega-gift development. The partnership will leverage the collective knowledge and experience of both organizations to offer tailored solutions that meet the specific needs of each institution.

The Fund Coach and Horizons Stewardship will develop joint programs, workshops, and resources as part of this collaboration. These resources will provide practical guidance, expert insights, and proven strategies to empower church and faith-based nonprofits to thrive in an ever-changing environment.

Both The Fund Coach and Horizons Stewardship are excited about the potential impact of this partnership on church and faith-based nonprofits. By combining forces, they can support leaders and organizations in fulfilling their missions, strengthening their communities, and making a positive difference in the world.
